

Did you know?

Our cooperative is one of the first established in all of France. It was in 1931 that we set in motion a sustainable movement permitting winegrowers the expansion of their vineyard lands and the perpetuation of winegrowing tradition from generation to generation.

UDP at a glance...

- Winemakers: 150
- Full-time employees: 45
- Hectares under vine: 700
- Châteaux Wines: 50
- Brands: 10
- Annual production: 36,000 hl | 4.8 M bottles
- French oak barrels: 5,300
- Annual turnover: 25 Million Euros
- Domestic distribution: 53%
- Export distribution (Europe, USA, Asia): 47%

Location

Our vineyards are located in the prestigious appellations of Saint-Emilion and Saint-Emilion Grand Cru and in other appellations of the Right Bank (Montagne, Castillon & Bordeaux). The vines are planted on all three characteristic terroirs: the hillsides, plateau and plains. Thus we offer a full range of wines expressing their distinctive "terroirs".

Between tradition & modernity

Today, the Union of Producers is one of the most valued cooperatives in France because we are faithful to the cooperative spirit that has inspired us since the beginning and work with the most contemporary approach and state-of-the-art equipment in our cellars in order to bring our clients a product of quality and value.

Quality in the heart of our strategy

Our methodology has allowed for a certified improvement in terms of quality and a personalized adaption to client needs.

A sustainable relationship

The Union of Producers of Saint-Emilion is a solid organization with over 80 years in operation, capable of adapting to each client request. This provides our partners with the necessary confidence to build a long-term relationship.

Situated in the Bordeaux region and built on and of limestone rock, Saint-Emilion identifies itself around a strong medieval identity, still intact today. Classified by UNESCO in the world heritage of humanity to the title of "cultural landscapes", the village of Saint-Emilion has become a tourist destination recognized worldwide.

We hope to have the pleasure of welcoming you soon to Saint Emilion
